REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record taken singularly or in combination teaches or suggests:

- A data processing block for receiving test result data in disparate formats produced by a plurality of test systems, to produce an identifiable result data, a memory data structure for storing the identifiable result data, and a database for storing the identifiable result data obtained from the memory data structure, wherein the identifiable result data has a uniform format for analyzing the test result data from the plurality test systems (claims 1 & 9)
- Providing a test suite containing a plurality of jobs, executing each job on a test system of a plurality of test systems to produce a test result file on each test system, processing each test result file to extract identifiable result data, storing the identifiable result data into a central memory data structure, and storing data in the central memory into a database (claim 14).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
